YONAHIAN

Greetings from President W. Ray Cleere

Dear Students:

The 1998 academic year has been very exciting as we began the first year of the College's second century. Everyone associated with Piedmont can take great pride in what has been accomplished in the past one hundred years. From the time the Rev. Charles C. Spence founded the College in 1897 to today, each administration has been dedicated to the improvement not just of the College, but of the community and Northeast Georgia as a whole. Through the decades, Piedmont has maintained its vision of leadership and service rooted to a common goal of excellence.

This past year at Piedmont has been filled with challenges and great opportunities. It has been my honor to serve as president during a time of tremendous growth in enrollment and during a time that has seen great changes in the campus, including the construction of Alumni Park and Congregational Circle, the addition of the Marten's Botanical Center, new construction for a fourth dormitory and major renovations of Wallace Hall. This year we will see more changes for Daniel Hall as the fourth floor is renovated to house the new R. Hugh Daniel school of Nursing, and we hope to begin construction in the fall on a new athletic center with a much-needed gymnasium.

But the year will also be remembered for the loss of one of our most historic buildings, Patten Hall, to fire. While this was a tragic loss for the College, the new science building that will rise on the site will be a worthy successor to Patten Hall, which served the College for more than 50 years.

The additions to the campus, new academic programs, and the enrollment growth in Demorest and in Athens are all proof that the next 100 years are going to be just as memorable and rewarding as the first. I hope that those of you graduating this year will come back often to watch your alma mater grow. We here at Piedmont will certainly be watching your careers with great interest and pride.

W. Ray Cleere
President

Burying the Centennial Time Capsule

Food, Fun & Folly!

Balloon animal anyone? This faculty member clowns around while adding magical excitement to this fun-filled day.

Sticky sweet! Jennife Boydston spirals the cotton candy aroun each stick with excep tional precision.

During Homecoming week end, a variety of clubs and sponsors come join the fun at the Homecoming Fair. The fair begins at 8:00 AM on Saturday morning at Lake Demorest.

Students, faculty, alumni and families enjoy an array of events including face-painting, "Kiss the Pig," club booths, plus many others.

After frequenting all of the displays, the much-anticipated athletic events begin. People migrate to the fields to watch the exciting volleyball and soccer games.

The celebrations lasts all day with the highlight being the announcement of the new 1997 Homecoming King and Queen.

Ham it up! A lot of money was donated to see Susan Sealy kiss the pig!

I wonder if he's single? Amanda Harvey and Matt Stewart woo the pig before the "Big Kiss!"

Look out below! This faculty member takes flight on this seemingly dangerous contraption.

100 Years Remembered. Dr. Cleere waits for the Centennial Time Capsule to be lowered into the ground.

Lion Pride at its Best! This poodle demonstrates its owner's love for Piedmont during the spirit of Homecoming. Poor Pooch!

Learning To Say "Aloha!"

It's not hard. Just repeat after me... A - low - ha!

Maybe if I hit him with a Frisbee, he'll say "aloha..."

Adrianne, don't talk with your mouth full!

Look at those guys over there. I'll aloha one, you aloha the other!

PATTEN FIRE

A message from the Yonahian staff

As you have already noticed, your yearbook is much smaller in size than other books in the past. The original yearbook staff worked this year to produce a complete and accurate history of the year at Piedmont. On a spring morning in April, however, a year's worth of work was lost during the Patten fire. The Yonahian office was destroyed--all photos, layouts, and records lay in ruins.

Out of the ashes has risen this brief retrospective of a difficult time at Piedmont College. We hope that you forgive oversights and omissions, and rejoice in the fact that through the dedicated work of friends of the Yonahian, we have this abbreviated edition.

The staff bids a fond farewell to Patten Hall, a grand old building that housed our office for many years, and we look forward to next year's complete edition.

Staff: Darek Hys, Melissa Nichols, Kim Stohlmann, Adrianne Christmas, Tanya Walker, and Kim Vicos. With special thanks to David Price for photos, Dionne Rosser, editor, for design and production, and Dr. Stephanie Almagno, faculty advisor.
